Description :

PDF-c17bb | Essentially a veterinary surgeon, the author has always specialized in obstetrics. Appalled at the damage done by existing "brute force" calving methods, he pioneered caesarean section in 1945 - a technique now practised throughout the world. He followed this up with a study of natural bovine birth. The results of this study and the techniques which evolved from it form the basis of this book. Thi... Calving the Cow & Care of the Calf
