Description :

PDF-7f412 | For all the political branding and rebranding of healthcare in the United States, its fundamental unit of currency remains the doctor-patient relationship. This relationship has undergone seismic changes during the twenty-first century, including the introduction of new players (the so-called healthcare "team") and care delivery in settings like big-box stores and bureaucratic health systems. But ... Next in Line: Lowered Care Expectations in the Age of Retail- and Value-Based Health
